

Dean Niforatos Dean comes from a Greek background and is passionate about reaching people for Christ. With a worldwide evangelistic ministry, he has brought the message of salvation, the power of the Holy Spirit, and healing to some of the neediest nations on earth. Besides bringing teams of workers to assist in humanitarian as well as spiritual needs, his extensive ministry trains and releases many of various ages into effective ministry abroad.

Dean is a popular speaker at churches and conferences and has had his amazing testimony broadcast on Christian TV and radio. The author of many tools for Christian growth, Dean has co-authored the successful book, “The Jesus Sensitive Church” available through New Leaf Press.

He has been married to his wife Carol, a minister and dentist, for over 22 years and they have two boys who travel the world ministering with them from their ministry base in Colorado.