AUTHOR-

Moses is the author of this book as was discussed in Genesis about the first five books of the Bible. One thing to note is that although there are _____ references to Moses, use of _____ by an author was extremely common in Moses' day, and this is consistent in the first five books.

WHEN THE BOOK WAS WRITTEN-

Here is an interesting note: Leviticus was written covering _____ of time (the time the Israelites were in front of Sinai). The book of Numbers covers their wanderings for over a _____ (1440-1405 B.C.)! Moses must have written Numbers some time just before his death as the Hebrew people prepared to enter the Promised Land. This would place the time of writing at about 1404 B.C.

ABOUT THE BOOK-

This book gets its name from _____ in found in chapters 1 and 26. It is actually a _____ to the Book of _____. Exodus follows the Hebrew people as they escape from slavery in Egypt, cross the wilderness, and arrive at Mount Sinai, where they receive the Ten Commandments and other parts of God's Law. The Book of Numbers picks up this story with the people still at Sinai. It follows their wanderings through the Wilderness of Sinai for the next 40 years until they finally arrive at Moab on the eastern side of the Jordan River, ready to occupy the land of Canaan. These wanderings deal with the _____ of _____ in the face of every _____ for their _____

Just as Moses is the central figure in Exodus, he also is the dominant personality in Numbers. His leadership ability is pushed to the limit in Numbers as the people grumble about everything from the food they have to eat to the water supply. Time after time God supplied their needs by sending manna, quail, and water; but still they cried out in a _____. Finally, in exasperation, Moses struck a rock with his rod to produce drinking water. This was _____ of God's command, since He had instructed Moses to _____. Because of his disobedience, Moses was not allowed to enter the Promised Land. He died shortly after viewing the land at a distance from atop Mount Nebo in Moab (Deut 34).

The Book of Numbers presents the concept of _____ upon His own disobedient people. Through their _____, the Hebrews had broken the covenant. Even Moses was not exempt from God's wrath when he disobeyed God.

But even in His wrath, God _____ on His people. While He might punish them _____, He was still determined to bless them and bring them _____ into a land of their own. You might say that the book of Numbers shows that side of God He is _____ but _____ - His _____.

Numbers demonstrates (especially through the story of the spies) the _____ from being _____.

When God speaks a promise we should respond with _____. The repeated _____ of His people in light of His continual _____ teach this generation in America to MAINTAIN an attitude of _____ even if we have "needs". The book of Numbers so well illustrates the fact that God is loving and merciful, and yet He _____: when repeatedly _____ He must and will judge and chastise- severely if need be!

A BASIC ASSESSMENT OF NUMBERS (THE BASIC THEME)-

This wonderful book speaks volumes to us on a wide variety of subjects. It emphasizes the fact that whatever you do, _____ unless God is leading you (see 9:15-23). It also emphasizes that _____ is a key to effective forward movement for the Kingdom- AS LONG AS THE STRUCTURE COMES FROM GOD! Organization and its disciplines are not _____ when all is submitted to God; it _____ the fullest possibilities of _____.

Obviously, with structure come people in positions of authority. If a people or an army is to move efficiently and effectively, they must obey chains of command. Numbers deals with these issues by pointing out an assortment of lessons. We learn in chapters 16 & 17 that rebellion against God's appointed leaders brings nothing but _____ and the end of _____. In 12:1-16 we see that _____ pursuit for position will inevitably bring shame and decay. And perhaps most humbling for those in leadership, we learn in 20:1-29 that leaders who _____ with their people embarrass themselves, reflect poorly on God, and ultimately block their own _____.

Another theme that is repeated as a lesson throughout the rest of the Word, it is that complaining and murmuring should never be allowed to get a hold of God's people's hearts. In fact, the book lambastes the idea that we can complain and have God just deal with it- see _____.

But if there is one key lesson that this book teaches us, it is that there can be no conquest or victory in our lives apart from _____. We as God's people must do more than "believe in our heads". We are to have complete trust, a trust that leads to _____ in a _____. Our lack of total trust is unbelief that leads to rebellion. It leads to lost "God" opportunities and delays or eliminates the fulfilling of His intended promise for our lives.

A POSSIBLE KEY WORD-

I think the key word should be "_____ " since the book is a record of the failure of Israel to believe or trust in the promise of God with the result of wandering in the wilderness. We could also use the term "_____".

KEY VERSE(S) AND CHAPTER(S)-

The pivotal verses in Numbers deal with the critical mistake of people and leader. That is why I choose: _____ with my key chapter the pivotal _____.

The reason for all this deals with the reality of what God has been trying to get across from the Garden of Eden. He is God and should be trusted and obeyed. These two things show respect and honor. To lack trust is to lead to disobedience that will lead to a public dishonoring of God. In a very real sense, a lack of trust dishonors Him as God and makes us seem better than Him! Yet in spite of all this, God was merciful in His judgment of the people, making sure in their wanderings they were still well taken care of- see Deuteronomy 8:4. Also note that key to spiritual leadership is the necessity of leading the way in trusting God!

JESUS REVEALED IN THE BOOK-

- The priesthood is a type of Jesus our high priest

- _____

take the high road of submission and suffering, following Christ's example as shown in 1 Peter 2:23.

A Brief Lesson to be Shared

Guidelines for Growing in Godliness

Numbers gives several important guidelines for building a life that increases its capacity for God. Becoming godly does not happen automatically through exposure to religious activity or by watch others exercise their religion. Rather, it is the result of a conscious pursuit of God. From the way we regard the community of God (the church) to the way we embrace the truths of our redemption, every aspect of godly living is important.

What the book of Numbers taught us regarding this:

- 1) 1:49–51 We should honor the pastoral position. Ministers are really gifts from the Lord to the church, no matter what bad experiences we may have had in the past (see Eph. 4:10–13).
- 2) 2:2, 17 We should gather as often as possible with God's people. We should make gathering with Christians, especially around the study of the Bible, a central part of our life.
- 3) 9:2, 3 We should set apart regular times in our lives where we celebrate what God did for us by sending Jesus to die for our sins. All our special moments shouldn't just be for a raise we got, or a worldly accomplishment.
- 4) 21:8 We need to ask ourselves this question: "Are we only looking to Jesus to be forgiven of our sins, or do we trust our own good works. See John 3:14-16.
